A warm welcome to all visitors at our worship services today.

Fair Trade Coffee - Orders are now being taken for freshly roasted, fair trade, organic, shade grown coffee. When you place your order, please specify regular or decaf., beans, drip or fine drip grind, regular or dark roast. Price $10 per pound. Deadline for orders is Aug. 30, please see Jim Green.

Church Family Care Group - Over the summer months please contact Bernice Richmond or Ann Osborn-Seyffert to help provide prayers of support for those who are ill and prayers for healing.

St. John's Food Cupboard. Thanks to all our dedicated volunteers who are keeping the cupboard active during the summer and to individuals who donate food or cash for bulk purchases. We continue to need donations of canned vegetables, meats, and tuna. New volunteers are always welcome, so please consider joining us in this missional activity.

St. John's Lamplighter Newsletter: Next edition will be out Sunday, Sept. 6th. Deadline for submissions is today, Sunday, Aug.23rd. Please leave the written copies in the office for the Attention of Sharon or email her at sjcorston@gmail.com.

A reminder from your bulletin editor: If you have an item you want included in the Sunday bulletin, please submit the info to the church office in writing, by Thursday of the week prior to the Sunday you want it to appear. Also it helps if you indicate how many Sundays you want it included. Information may be edited depending on available space.

Budget Update - To the end of May our parochial shortfall means that we require $3070.00 weekly to meet our budget. Please give prayerful thought to your church and it's financial needs.

Neighbourhood News

Mission to Seafarers: If you have not already done so, would you consider financially supporting the Mission to Seafarers this year? Your contribution enables the chaplain and a dedicated group of volunteers to care for seafarers who visit the Port of Thunder Bay.

New Testament Boot Camp

- Saturday, September 19, 9:30 a.m. - 3 p.m..

Led by The Rev. Dr. Robert Derrenbacker, President, Thorneloe University.

Cost - $35 (includes lunch & snacks).

This workshop will expose students to four things:

- 1) the religious and cultural backgrounds to the New Testament
- 2) the genres of the New Testament
- 3) the content of the New Testament
- 4) some reading strategies for approaching the study of the New Testament.

As a result, participants should leave the workshop as more effective, proficient and faithful readers of the New Testament.

To register please contact Destinee at 709 - 1207 or foodforthesoul@tbaytel.net.
